A MATERIALLY BETTER FEELING. HOWEVER, IN WALL STREET.

Both Money and the General Situation Easier-Rumors of Further Diffi-market to-day showed a materially better feeling, both in the street and outside, and there was a most gratifying confidence displayed that not only was the worst now over, but that the improvement would be quick and sharp. The action of the Clearing-House Committee in coming to the relief of banks in difficulty was the means of restoring the confidence of many, while the imrovement in the situation abroad was so a powerful factor to that end. Not only were the active stocks much higher all day long, but the inactive specialties which yesterday could not find buyers at any price were to-day taken at constantly a lyancing figures, and the heavy slump in those shares was in a great measure made up. The liquidation in the Villards is now believed to have marked the culmination of the efforts to force complete liquidation in the street, as those stocks had resisted the force applied for a much longer time than any other Brokaw said last night, was less than group of stocks on the list.

THE WHOLE SITUATION BETTER, The impression now is that the whole situation has been changed for the bet-ter and that the improvement in the con-dition of affairs will be followed by higher prices all along the line. There were rumors of further troubles in financial circles, and the North-River Bank went into the hands of an examiner late in the day, though the fact was not made known until after the close of business. Foreigners were heavy buyers all day count were so large that the suspicion that late sales for London were for short account was openly expressed. The Board of Aldermen and Commo Council held a joint session last night to elect a harbor master to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. R. H. Styll's death. President Dickerson, of the board, pre-

Attorney having rendered an opinion to the effect that the election of five aldermen from Monroe and Jackson wards designate which were the long-term President Dickerson replied that he had consulted the City Attorney, who had informed him that the members in question were aldermen de facto though not de jure, and were as much entitled to their vote as he himself. A special meeting of the board will, he said, be held next Monday night to decide the SEVERAL NOMINATIONS.

It being decided to proceed with the election, Mr. Stratton nominated Captain John A. Curtis.

Mr. Christian placed in nomination Mr. Joseph A. Hopkins. Mr. Campbell presented the name of Mr. Philip Hellstern, and submitted a petition in his behalf signed by a number of leading citizens.

Mr. Guigon seconded Captain Curtis's nomination, Mr. Garber placed the name of Mr.

John J. Cannon in nomination.

Mr. Diacont said he had been requested to nominate a gentleman who did not live in the city, having built a house just outside the corporation, but who said he would move into the city if

The President ruled him out of order. Mr. Cary seconded the nomination of Captain Curtis. The roll was called and after much changing the vote was announced—Cap-tain Curtis, 29; Mr. Hopkins, 6, and Mr. Hellstern, 3. Captain Curtis was declared elected and the board adjourned.

property, would give all a chance."

A lot, with the privilege of the block, on Pailroad avenue was offered, and after quick and spirited bidding, was knocked out to Mr. T. A. Cary at 86 per foot, at which figure he took the block. The next block on Brookland street was sold Mr. A. Gay Ford at $4.50 per foot. The Marshall-street lots were next called for, and a block of five lots was secured Mr. J. F. Bryant at $7.50 per foot At this stage a steady, drizzling rain set in, and many persons present left the ground. A good many remained, how-ever, and Broad-street lots were requested to be put up.

The lots corner Broad street and High Point avenue were put up and were knocked out at $16 per foot to Mr. C. N. Goverwin, who took the balance of that block At this point the rain was so disagreeable the auctioneers announced that the sale would be called off and continued until to-day at 1 o'clock. Every lot put up thus far, amounting to some fifty-odd, has been sold regardless of price. Some of the purchasers have announced that they will build their residences at once. PRETTY MARRIAGES IN THE MORN ING AND AFTERNOON.

Mr. Boatwright and Miss Baughman at Si Paul's-Mr. Burke and Miss Hungertord at the Cathedral.

At St. Paul's church yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Fannie Hall Baughman, of this city, was married to Mr. Edmund Pendleton Boatwright, of Wilmington, N. C.

The church presented a lovely scene, and the event added another to the long list of pretty weddings that have occurred in this historic and fashionable house of worship.

Friends of the bride and groom filled the anditorium and gallery. A canopy reached from the sidewalk to the vesti-bule door. The main aisle was covered Mr. James T. Gray, one of the Mon-roe-Ward delegation, wanted to know if he was a member of the board, the City with white cloth, as was also the chancel, which had been cleared for the oc casion. Grouped tastefully around the latter were numerous living plants, conwas void, inasmuch as the voters did not trasting prettily with the surrounding white, while scores of gas-jets completed the beauty of the scene. Professor Reinhardt manipulated the ivories of the organ, the mellow notes of which served to hasten the flight of time to the waiting congregation.

BRIDAL PARTY.

The following were the ushers : Messre. R. M. Blankenship, Ro. Cannon, D. Brodnax, Richmond Maury, Elmer Ecker, Charles Hurkamp, of Fredericksburg; C. M. Miller, and Dr. W. Augustus

The bridal party, preceded by the ushers, entered the church at 5:15 o'clock, the organ sending forth the beautiful tones of Mendelsshon's peeress wedding march.

The bridesmaids were; Miss May Baughman, sister of the bride and maid of honor; Miss Ashley Miller, Miss Vida Fleming, of Savannah, Ga.; Miss Gooch, Miss Annie Taliaferro, Miss Hobson, Miss Mamie Baughman, and Miss Kemper (daughter of the ex-Governor), of Orange. All these young ladies were in white except the maid of tonor, who was lovely in old-gold

The groomsmen were the following Messrs. Harry Boatwright (brother of the groom and best man), of Wilming-ton, N. C.; H. C. Gedney, New York; Douglas Cronly and Walker Taylor, Wilmington; Charles Stacy, Willie Walker, Greer Baughman, Jr., and Lohn Bowles. John Bowles.

NEVER MORE TO PART. The bride, who looked exceedingly well, was attired in a beautiful costur

At the chancel she was met by the groom, who with his best escape an early grave, men had made his entrance from the rear door. The bridel party formed in a half-circle, the ladies in front. Bishop Randolph and Kev. Hartley

Carmichael, pastor of the church, performed the marriage ceremony pressively, the bride being given away by her father. The party left the church in exactly
